

With the fire that started on the south side of town still going on, evacuations have been suggested. These photos and videos were taken around noon.

Some homes have burnt down. Here are some other local images

